The third CD from Wendy Colonna - songs as catchy as bubble gum pop with lyrics as inspired as classic folk. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, FOLK: like Joni Details: "This girl can sing! She can get just as angry and throw out as much power vocally as a man, without losing a BIT of her femininity... I've spent years nearly ignoring female singers. Thanks to Wendy for opening that door" Austinlive Wendy is a native Louisiana girl, the daughter of a teacher and a social activist, raised in a community of old front-porch blues musicians, back-room funk players and coffeehouse folk artists. These eclectic influences have produced an artist of raw energy and original talent - an artist regularly compared Joni Mitchell, Stevie Wonder, Joan Baez and Natalie Merchant. Her third album, "Right Where I Belong", delivers Wendy's crafty and insightful songs as they are meant to be heard. Backed by her amazing band, as well as guest appearances by as an assortment of Austin's most talented artists, it's a lushly orchestrated journey - at once raw and powerful yet subtle and sultry. Already receiving critical acclaim it truly captures Colonna's stunning voice and holds you at the crest of the stories and emotion she washes upon the shores of your ears and mind . . . it's a fresh bouquet of tunes, spirited and sultry, sure to be her best work yet! "Her subtle, melting vocals bend and stretch with the album's melodic modern arrangements. In lyrics or in melodies, Colonna appears equally versatile." - Offbeat Magazine
