This Christian fiction tells of Deniqua Greer's possible self-annihilation. "If you can't be with the one you love, love the one you're with" is not an option when you are trying to live it God's way, and a single female with fleshly desires. In more ways than one, Deniqua experienced the Woman Thou Art Loose epiphany, per se. Loyalty, commitment, and dedication to duty were not enough when dealing with her kind of enemy. Being GI Jane was all right if you were a single white female, but to dodge the slithering bullets, and win a battle, Deniqua had to become Rambet! Getting with the program doesn't mean one has to be a chameleon just to fit in. Change can be good if for the right reasons. Deniqua's temporary change was done out of revenge. Thus teaching her that some things are not meant to be. Being free to express self with dignity, excepted for who you are as you are, and given the respect for being you seem so simple. The Constitution of the United States gives one that right, but the underlying constitution, and your own morals or a lack thereof can make the destination a trip to hell. Be true, real, and believe in yourself, then take the wings God gave you, fly above the obstacles, and be free! Author: D, Merita
