Representin' El Pueblo Projects of Pittsburg, CA in the Infamous Bay Area, Cali. this is Pain Music...Fight Music...Gangsta Music...Real Music... 20 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: Hailing from El Pueblo Projects, Pittsburg, California Arsenal is a direct disciple of the late, great King Freako of the Ghetto Stars. Arsenal has been putting in work on his music career for years now. He has rocked with some of the Best in the Bay Area including the aforementioned Freako, Arsenal's brother: Dubb20 (Also of the Ghetto Stars), the Mob Figaz and many more. He was featured on Supernatural Records' "Pueblo Indians" project and released "My Carpino Legacy" just a few years back. In 2006 he released his full length solo debut, "Next Best Thing" to rave reviews from hood to hood. With his newest project, "Student of King Freako," Arsenal introduces his new lable, "Fight Music" and a stepped-up, even more aggressive approach to recording. His aim, above all else, is to "Keep the King Alive," as he puts it. From top to bottom "Student of King Freako" is packed wit that real pain music. Its that real fight music! Its that hood music that people from ghetto to ghetto can relate to. Featuring, Arsenal himself, Dubb20, Montana Max and Prince Amir(Sani) of Smash Unit, Dojah, Charizma, Drayno and Joe Syah, Arsenal shares mic time with some of the best and brightest from the "P." This is that thug music at its best. With exclusive production from one of the fastest rising producers in the Bay, Charizma, the album slaps from front to back. This is a must cop if you love that real ghetto music.
