Story telling laced with soulful vocals. This is the first record released from the Milwaukee native who lives in FL and TN and is set to make a mark. These beat driven tunes are refreshing in a time of entertainers and over production. It started as a recording project with full time jazz students returning home from their schools for winter break. "You're in my seat" Is the result of singer/songwriter Cleveland Miles taking his songs to some old friends and letting artists be artists. A sound was created often hard to place . By the end of the album it's clear who Cleveland sounds like; everyone he's ever listened to and most importantly himself.
