Rhythm soaked earthy groove jazz with a world/pop twist. 9 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Fusion, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: Reviwers have said: Conundrum's mix of electronics, folkloric percussion (think west Africa and Bali), funk, vocals, electric guitar, and horns conjures up a 90's updating of 70's Miles, Curtis Mayfield blaxploitation soundtracks and the best of jazz-rock fusion experimentation. - Boston Pheonix " A stellar and visioanry album that whirls horns, guitars, basses, ethnic instruments, and "junk" together into a rich organic maestrm shocked through with 70's funk, African swagger, jazz harmony, Afro -cuban rhythmic conception." Jon Babu-The Performer "The groove is dark organic blend of acid jazz, world beat, bebop, electronic, urban and textural ambience that will make your hair stand on end. The album itself seems to play like the ultimate after hours musical loft party." Joel Simches-The Noise "Completely original and void of all restrictions Conundrum's "Tea" is a work for all times." -Metronome "Top 5 Local Product" WFNX, Boston About us: Counundrum is an experimental musical collective led by multi-instrumentalist/composer/engineer Cyrus Sink with a focus on creating new grooves with rhythm based compositions.
