4-track bedroom indie rock with pop sensibilities, sunny harmonies and textured sounds. R.I.Y.L the Shins, Microphones or Hayden, Canadian singer-songwriters 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, POP: Beatles-pop Details: If a full-length album is the musical equivalent to a novel, then Harsh Lenses is a novelette filled with characters who wallow in nostalgia, lament for the past, suffer from religious hallucinations, jump from rooftops, and spend hemp-hazed afternoons basking in the sensuous summer sun. With Harsh Lenses, songwriter/recordist, Dean Marino (aka expo), sets out to explore his own personal musical/lyrical journey, alone, in his bedroom, without unwanted input or interruption. This staggering debut EP, with its intimate vocal tracks, lo-fi sound layers, partly sunny melodies and low-key production, will surely get under your skin and crawl towards your heartstrings. A full length CD for early 2005 is expected. Visit filmhousetorecordingsfor more information.
