Carolyn Baxter, Steve Dargis and Creston Baker resign in the spirit world where their artistic plain seems to be fluid and timeless." --Julia Gross "Goth Relic" "Another concept puzzle from FoA that appears to be a link between the physical and the spiritual realm. Dreamy and illusive yet poignant lyrics in a age of dissimulation." --J.L. Jackson "Baltimore Underground" "'Spiritum Oriundus' resides in the preconscious state of awareness, allowing the listener to experience a subconscious state to mediate with spirits." -- Kerry Langly "LA Times--Music Review"
