People who are interested in Gloria Estefan Ricky Martin should consider this download. Details: This Maxi-CD has been recorded by Gerd Rube members of the legendary Miami Sound Machine (Band of Gloria Estefan) in Miami/FL in 2001. Teddy Mulet did a fantastic job with his horn and string arrangements. Martin Hand added some great guitars and you will recognize the fab latin piano of Clay Ozwald. Edwin Bonilla added his percussion to perfection! Continuously touring the US since 1993 as a solo, duo or with a four-piec band, Germany's (not for long) best kept secret has been building a fast-growing fanbase here and got titled "honorary local" as well as "The Keys favorite German son".

Gerd has recorded with members of the Garth Brook's Band in Nashville, TN and members of the Miami Sound Machine. His music-video "Happy Day" was played on MTV Europe for several months. One German magazine hit home the point accurately when they wrote, "Gerd doesn't want to renew the music - he likes it the way it is!" Gerd has performed on many live stages from Europe to his second home in the Florida Keys, from New York to California and many points in-between. His influences range from the classics of the Allman Brothers to the cutting edge of vintage Frank Zappa and all have found their place in his live stage performances. Throughout the years, Gerd found and settled into his own style and could be described as a mix of The Eagles, early Bryan Adams, with a little Bon Jovi tossed in for good measure. His unique voice easily identifies him and becomes very addictive.
