Jazz uptempo, smooth jazz, background, mellow jazz, familiar jazz 13 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: This CD is mostly a tribute to my family, for being supportive, patient and understanding. I would spend hours, days in the studio until I finish certain projects, surely missing quality time I could have spent with them. The end results are in, this latest effort, "Now I Remember", are happy tracks, with a lot of familiarity about them. Uplifting, direct and personal at the same time, the popularity and ease of play makes you come back again and again. Listen to "City" , "Cool" both of these tracks sound like, "today I feel like this". You hear these songs in your head all the time, just now, when you start the cd, it come out. Maybe its the "old school" sound theme, the summer-like quality about them. Tell me what you think.
