Her most honest, raw and personal release to date. Recorded in her San Francisco home. 11 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Alternative Folk, FOLK: Folk-Rock Details: Armed with an acoustic guitar and an irreverent heart, singer-songwriter Heather Combs is not afraid of the stage. She is fiery, funny, intense and not afraid to take risks. Her voice is sweet and then rough, strong and then vulnerable, but always honest and true. In the past two years, Florida-born, San Francisco-based, Combs has played over 200 shows throughout the West Coast, recorded and released a critically acclaimed live record, and been named 'Best Band in the Bay Area' by San Francisco Magazine two years in a row. Heather has opened for Sheryl Crow, Joan Osborne, the Go-Go's, Stevie Nicks, John Mellencamp and Tom Petty just to name a few. She is a powerhouse on stage and thrives on connecting with the audience. She plays guitar with reckless abandon and isn't afraid to show the listener who she really is. Give her a chance, and she'll win your heart with her songs, her passion, her voice.
