GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: My Family I come from a family of six siblings. As far back as I can remember we sang. I remember sitting around on a Friday night and someone would start singing. Next thing you know, everyone would join in the chorus. With such a big family the entertainment never ceased. My older brother plays the guitar. My older and younger sisters all play the piano. My mother plays the tamborine. And Nathan, the youngest, sings like Andrea Bocelli. My father has always had an amazing gift for clapping in the "off beat". I love them all. They're awesome!

Songwriting I started writing songs when I was fifteen. I never could just decide to write a song and then write it. Songs for me have always been inspired by God through life. I don't remember ever spending more than thirty minutes writing a song. Usually the words come with the music. My opinion is that every word, every note, should be birthed from prayer, passion, or desire. If you have to make something up, it probably isn't worth the time. This is what I have experienced in songwriting. So basically, my songs are a journal of my life. It is my hope that these songs will bring peace, joy, and hope to your journey. History of The Prodigal! An act of God brought this album into existence. From start to finish the Lord provided the finances, the musicians, the studio. Even the studio owner, Ray Lyons, who did an awesome job, put a lot of personal time into it to help bring this about. After much hard work, "The Prodigal" was made available to the public April 2005. Go to josuapantuso.com for more of this story!!
