Staying true to her folk country roots, Kim's lyrics tell stories about life, that are backed by a blend of rich harmonies, acoustic guitar, violin, keyboards, bass and mandolin. 13 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Kim Lyons Kim Lyons has been writing music and lyrics most of her life and for the last few years has been co-writing with her husband, Rick. She draws on her life experiences to aid in her creating and writes to appeal to the everyday person in each of us. She is a member of ASCAP and the Nashville Songwriters Association International (NSAI) workshop in Johnson City, Tennessee where she continues to learn about the art of songwriting. She has played at numerous venues, including: The Virginia Highlands Festival, Bristols Rhythm Roots Reunion, The Down Home in Johnson City, Tennessee, The Hall of Fame Lounge, The French Quarter Caf and The Bluebird Caf in Nashville, Tennessee. Kim is currently hosting Songwriters Night at Carter At Main in Elizabethton, TN. When Kim decided to go to the studio and release a CD, choosing the songs was the hardest part. I tried to mix it up a little, to keep it interesting so that different styles would be represented. The title song on the CD is very special to Kim. The idea came from a Poem her daughter, Ashley wrote in school. Kim sat down with the guitar and began putting it to music. Her son, Matthew and her husband all contributed to the lyrical changes, using as much of the original poem as possible. It has a little bit of all of us in it! Kim has also included an insert titled The Stories Behind The Songs. As you hear each story unfold, you can read about what inspired each one of the original songs. As one of my friends put it be careful what you tell Kim, it may just end up in a song. I hope you enjoy the music that comes from my heart. My music is my escape from the everyday turmoil that is out there in the world. I believe there is good everywhere if you just look hard enough, even if you just take a look inside. Because Of This Day ...I am able to sit down with my guitar Play a little and perhaps write a little I am able to share my inner most thoughts And ideas with you I can sing out loud with great joy For all of the blessings I have in my life I can look at lifes moments as they drift by Not taking one second for granted I can meet new people and form new friendships I can do many things that would be impossible otherwise I can record this CD in hopes that others will want to listen Because of this day, the sun will set below the horizon And make a new day!
