Hometown Groove, Great Songwriting. Sweet acoustic poprock flavors. Killer Songs. 11 MP3 Songs
POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Lex Lang's music has been described as having southwestern hometown charm, cool rockin' riffs, smoldering sexuality, and a contemporary original sound that's sure to please the listener. Lex Lang the artist/producer/poet is gifted with musical abilities that give the listener open access to the complete spectrum of music. A captivating songwriter, singer, guitarist and performer, Lex is proud to be making his electrifying independent solo debut on CD Baby/ GarageBand and the world wide web at the band's web site (lexlang.com). Lex writes within a collection of emotions and styles. A musician and singer from the age of seven, song writing has played a major role in his evolution as an artist. Early in his career Lex's influences were primarily The Beatles, Led Zeppelin , Peter Frampton, Billy Joel, light rock and 70's top forty. He wrote over thirty songs on the piano before discovering his primary instrument, the guitar. Lex's influences grew to include harder guitar driven rock, Van Halen, Pink Floyd, Bon Jovi, Bad Company and an assortment of other rock and roll groups. Lex's latest compositions consist of eleven new songs. The new sound is powerful, melodic, and has a soulful, sensual hometown groove. He was recently spotted playing throughout the L.A. area (Hard Rock Cafe Hollywood) with the very talented Scott "Scorch" MacDonald , Rod Loudon, Ronik Ital, Mike Celenza, Mary Elizabeth, Kelli Whitaker, Stefano Valdo and other guest musicians.
