just good music, all genre 16 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, ROCK: Jam-band Details: SINCE 1983 we're Mr.E(songwriter)and the totally obscure band "out of all of life's Mr.E's ,there is only one, mystery (songwriter)".....me "A mystery is something of which we know that it is , we just don't know how it is".....unknown "someone told me what we do is Americana , well thats alright with me"....Mr.E(songwriter) june 15th 2006 Northeast In-Tune magazine With music ranging the entire musical gamut, from Country and western to Alternative, Mr. E (songwriter) and the totally obscure band have achieved what very few bands have ever attempted. With seven albums in their repertoire their success is obvious. They have preformed in numerous venues and achieved many accommodations including three ASCAP Plus Awards for the 2004/2005 period for domestic writers. Their unique Dylan-esque vocals and beautiful music make for a unique blend of composition. In Christmas Time the joy of one days effect on people and the world as a whole is rejoiced in tender loving lyrics. Ever been lonely is a bluesy heartbreak song with fabulous harmonica and guitar riffs. Its all about me has a country flavor with a little blues background to flavor the narcissistic lyrics. Mourn for the City is reminiscent of some of U2s sad introspection about the human condition. The variety of genres that Mr. E (Songwriter) and the totally obscure band touch on makes their music unique and definitive. Though little is know about the individual members of Mr. E (Gregg Christiansen; guitars, keyboards, vocals, Michael Ryan; rhythm guitar, harmonica and vocals, Richard Ord; bass guitar, percussion and vocals, Rolfe Newton; drums and percussion) their musical value is obvious. Aside from the ASCAP Plus awards they have also achieved a tribute on EBANDSfor their moving song Winds of War (a tribute to the soldiers over seas), and varied invitations to perform at multinational concerts. A stunning set of musical ambassadors destined for great things. reviewed by Kathleen Sharkey Northeast In-Tune magazine june 15th 2006
