An hour of music that frequently mixes styles and moods; sometimes intoxicated and hyperactive, at other times quite sinister. Biography: Twink is the music of toy pianist Mike Langlie, a Boston-based musician and artist. Before Twink, Mike played keyboards in gothic and electronic bands. He became inspired by a thrift store toy piano when his sequencers went on the fritz, and soon ditched the synths for tiny instruments. Album points: - Tracks from this album have been featured in animated shorts created for MTV Europe. - Some of the musicians joining Twink on this album are: Clayton Scoble (Aimee Mann, Francine), Rick Hansen (Plastic Nebraska) and Steven Cerio (illustrator for the Residents). - Jeff Patterson, founder of the Internet Underground Music Archive (iuma.com), named Twink as one of his "favorite new bands." Review Excerpts: - "Extraordinary in its inventiveness." (Ink 19) - "Happy-go-lucky but with a dark underbelly." (Cool Strange Music) - "Playful, silly, catchy, creepy, fun, wild and truly bizarre" (Aquarius Records)
