Gentle and soothing female vocalist singing beautifully arranged conservative classic hymn stylings. 13 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Valerie Ann Knies has spent her lifetime singing hymns. She has sung in churches in almost every state in the United States and over 30 countries. While visiting these many churches, she noticed the old hymns of the faith are being neglected. New songs and contemporary music are replacing the heritage hymns in many homes and churches. Having a desire to do something to preserve the foundational music of Christianity, Valerie has recorded two hymn collections of 32 hymns each. These collections, "My Master and My Friend" and "My Blessed Redeemer" include many of her favorite hymns. She has worked together with the talented and brilliant pianist and arranger, Miss Heather Roberts, and several instrumentalists, to record these beautiful hymn stylings. Her desire is to get this music into homes and hearts as listeners sing along. People of all ages will enjoy this inspiring and spiritual music, which has become a favorite for many families. Valerie, who has been a soloist since her teenage years, holds a bachelor's degree in music education and has taught band and choir. She plays several wind instruments and majored in sacred and classical saxophone. She and her husband, Jim, have served as missionary church planters in Southeast Asia and have been in Pcs, Hungary for over 10 years. She works in the church in Hungary as church organist and music director including directing a youth choir and adult choir. "My Master and My Friend" and "My Blessed Redeemer" will be a welcome addition to any music library.
