Quinn Winslow retires to a Coastal Carolina town after a large inheritance. She enjoys baking, gardening, T'ai Chi and volunteers at her church and the local domestic abuse center. She remodels her own home while renewing friendships with childhood friends and family and meets many women like herself who are starting over after divorce or widowhood. When a couple of her investment club members are involved in fatal accidents, she notices similarities in a deadly pattern, but the police aren't interested in following her leads. Quinn has to discover the serial killer before she becomes his next target. Author: Dodd, Karen E
