Heart Song Julia Daniels Chloe Brandt wants to be a flapper. She's got the whole uniform down pat from the bobbed hair to the short skirts that ride above the knee when she dances The Charleston. She left the stifling confines and domestic violence of the farm where she grew up to find excitement in the city and to become a nurse. When fate drags her back home, the small town and its people she once thought of as old-fashioned and backward welcome her with open arms. They accept her for whom she is, and show Chloe that home is truly where the heart is. Reese Lloyd is grieving the gangster-style murder of his brother and sister-in-law and wants to find his brother's murderer. When he and Chloe are named joint guardians of his brother's child, he is torn. Involved with another woman, dare he risk his heart on Chloe again? Can he trust her to stay and make a life with him?
