Love Unveiled contains a unique collection of poetry written by William G. Ferguson, detailing his personal experiences from the relationships that he has shared and has witnessed, thus far in his lifetime. It touches, not only on the joy and the fulfillment of finding love, but also the disparity and sorrow of losing it. It follows the path of healing that we all must negotiate, denial; pain and sorrow; laying and absorbing of blame; bitterness; regret and eventually, but most importantly, trying to find forgiveness. This collection is poetry in its most sincere form, combining rhythm with rhyme and good reason, to touch us all deeply in one way or another. It also remarks on love as it affects us in other aspects; the love of family and friends, love of our children, our pets and our love of nature and life itself. This is a must read for those of us who have ever experienced the excitement of a fresh new love and the dream of it being that one and only enduring love. Despite the authors' journey, he maintains his insistence that true love is just around the corner, waiting for us to find it! Author: Ferguson, William G.
