Reviews... This music is different . It brings pop and reggae together in one beautiful collaboration. KA - Friend ----- Athenia Henderson --

Singer-Songwriter Never without a Song on Her Lips Athenia came to Hackensack five years ago from the town of Roseau in Dominica. She sings a mixture of Reggae and Soca that trespasses into Rhythm Blues with delightful results. In Dominica, Athenia was the youngest in a nine-person band, "The Swinging Stars," and she's bounced from ensemble to ensemble in America. Now she's out on her own.

As an example of her compositions, she offered "A Song in My Head," a musical declaration of love.

Asked for her over-weening passion in life, she answered without hesitation that she sings every waking moment of every single day. Also, she spares no effort in instilling that love of melody in her children.

She's performed at Le Varvat (WLBS Radio's club) among other night spots. You can pick up more about this gifted singer at myspace.com/atheniahendersonm and at atheniahenderson.com/. John Irving - Cafe

Improv (Sep 22, 2007) ----- Dominica's Athenia Henderson delivers an auspicious, stellar debut with the new single "A Song in my Head". Best described as Pop meets Techo, Athenia packs an explosive sound this track. Musically, the song is driven by a beautiful voice and high-paced, bass driven rhythms. "A Song in my Head" not only a solid release but a surprising one, one that definitely should not
