Details: A published songwriter, experienced singer and guitar player, and an avid but overly challenged hacker of the little white ball. Brad has combined his twin passions - one for golf and the other for music - into a unique musical album. Few people have captured the spirit and humor of the game of golf in the special way that Brad has. The power of the game to: override all else (Golf Scramble-itis), to beget creative language (Golf Is A Cussin' Game), stand between man and wife (I Don't Go Golfing With My Wife), to teach lessons of life (Never Up, Never In), to humble and humiliate (Double Boget Blues), the lists goes on. . . Any golfer will treasure this wacky and wonderful tribute.
