Details: Donna Andy Donna Rhodenizer and Andy Duinker have been performing professionally together since 1996. Andy's extensive vocal range and guitar, Donna's keyboard and vocals, and the addition of violin allow for a versatile and varied presentation. As the Duo Donna Andy, they have performed for over 100,000 elementary students throughout Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and have also presented teacher workshops at provincial and international music educators conferences. Donna Andy will be presenting the Computer Cat at the Ontario Music Educators Association conference Nov 3 to 5 2005. The songs on the "Dinosaurs, Dragons and Me" CD are in a variety of musical styles and instrumental arrangements, creating an interesting listening experience. Donna Andy are joined by children from Donna's households, plus nieces and nephews, collectively known as "The Relative Minors" who sing on several of the tracks. Donna Andy are also joined by some fine studio musicians who provide live instrumentals for the songs. The 12 songs on this CD are presented in two versions: full performance tracks, as well as sing-along tracks for those individuals who want to sing with a professional back-up band. These instrumental tracks are often used for song presentations in school concerts and assemblies. The "Dinosaurs, Dragons and Me" CD can also be purchased as part of the "Dinosaurs, Dragons and Me Song Book".
