Raunchy downhome blues from one of the last great Southern bluesmen 11 MP3 Songs BLUES: Electric Blues, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Drink Small is South Carolina's greatest living blues artist, a versatile unique performer who has been recording since the mid-1950s. Born in Bishopville (Lee County) in 1933, Drink Small has one of the deepest bass voices in modern music and plays wicked guitar (and, on occasion, barrelhouse piano). As much a blues comedian as a singer/instrumentalist, Drink weaves wild woolly stories around his music - a session with this bluesman truly is a one-of-a-kind experience. "Blues Doctor: Live Outrageous!" (originally released in 1988 as a cassette-only) is the ultimate Drink Small document.
