Details: HERB RYALS If you ask Herb Ryals when he first fell in love with music, hed probably say It must have happened when I was born. Herb recall his mother telling him that before he could talk, he would hum along with the songs constantly playing on the radio in the Ryals home. Both his mother and father could sing and his sisters were singing in perfect harmony as far back as Herb can remember. A native of Georgia, and being raised in the deep south, Herb was influenced by a broad range of singers and musicians (including big band, country, blues, rock and roll and more). His first performance was at the age of 3 where sang God Bless America at a cantata in Albany, Georgia. He taught himself to play piano and saxophone while still a teenager and was playing professionally by the age of 18. At 20, he landed his first recording contract with a newly-formed record label in Memphis, Tn. Known as Pepper Records. He recorded a remake of the standard Heart and Soul, which was successful enough to send him on tour with artists Frankie Avalon, Chuck Berry, Johnny Horton, Ferlin Huskey and many others. Herb worked as a singer, songwriter and musician in Memphis, Nashville, Atlanta, New Orleans and New York. He recorded The Luckiest Guy and Suzanne (with Jerry Willis) on Dot Records in 1961 (both songs which had considerable success in Europe). In 1968, Herb recorded Like the falling Rain released on RCA Victor and Goodbye Maria was recorded in the early 70s (released on Atco Records). When Elvis Was in Germany, Herb played live with Elvis backing band members, Bill Black and Scotty Moore. Several of Herbs songs were recorded by other artists, such as Arthur Alexander and Roy Hamilton. Herb ahas worked with top producers such as Noel Ball in Nashville (who produced hits Sugar Shack, You Better Move On and Anna). In New York, he worked with producer Paul Vance (who produced hits Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Yellow Polka Dot Bikini and catch a falling Star). In the 1980s, Herb recorded his version of Percy Sledge hit warm and Tender Love, which placed him in billboard magazine. Today, however, Herb Ryals is singing and playing different songs.. songs that glorify Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour . After many years in night clubs and the secular music business Herb began to feel that something was missing in his life and that his music was not having a positive impact on himself or his audiences. Herb says that sometime in the nineties he felt the lord calling him to use his talents to glorify the lord and bring people to JESUS CHRIST. It was during this time that herb began writing gospel music and eleven of his gospel songs are featured on the Lifeboat CD available on CD Baby. Also, Herb currently has a CD entitled Gospel Sax Vol. 1 which features Herb playing favorite Hymns on tenor saxophone and this CD is also available on CD Baby. Herb says it is my goal to glorify the Lord through my music and I hope people will hear something in my music that brings them to the Lord. One of Herbs favorite scriptures is Matthew 6:33.. but seek ye first the Kingdom of GOD and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you. Look for all of Herb Ryals music on CD Baby.
