If you love children and Jesus, you will love these sixteen new songs of faith. 16 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Glenda Fulton Davis is the project coordinator and lyricist for Hugs for Children. Glenda has a heart for children. She raised five children of her own, and taught countless others in childrens church for over twenty years. While raising her children as a stay at home mom, Glenda began writing poems and became an internationally known poet. Her writing has been used in devotional books, tracts, booklets, magazines and on posters. Her husband, suggested that she write some little poems for children that could be put to music. Glenda thought that was a wonderful idea. A talented musician friend agreed to help write the notes. When the songs were ready, an experienced arranger and talented children singers came on board to make the songs come alive. The result is an inspirational and musically creative CD, that will delight and bless the lives of children everywhere.
