Embraced by Billboard Rolling Stone - This Rootsy gem has become a highly sought after Collectors Item. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: "Engaging... Jolynn tackles a variety of subjects with startling clarity. A highly deserving artist." - Paul Verna, BILLBOARD MAGAZINE (Spotlight Album Review) ===== This is the CD that brought much attention to Jolynn Daniel from the Americana/Roots-Rock collective worldwide. Ben Peeler (Alexi Murdoch, eastmountainsouth, The Wallflowers, The Mavericks) appears on 4 tracks playing Lap Steel, Dobro, and Mandolin, along with Craig Harmon (Cracker) who plays Keyboards on the entire Album. Reviewed in: Billboard Magazine (Spotlight) Rolling Stone Album Network FMQB ...among others. This coveted album has NOW just become available in Limited Quantities though CDBaby.com. Fans of Lucinda Williams, Shawn Colvin, and Kasey Chambers will rejoice over this now highly collectable, and sought after set of recordings. Other "Cosmic" Praise: "Jolynn Daniel is one of the very few artists who successfully walks the line between Rock, Pop, Folk, and Country without ever careening too far one way or the other." - MTV Online "Cosmic Daughter manages to walk deftly between Roots-Folk, and Rock. It has come on like some Indie-Pop Cinderella evoking images of Sheryl Crow, Neil Young and occasionally the Pop melodicism of Toad the Wet Sprocket." - Rick deYampert, The Tennessean (Nashville's Largest News Daily) "Jolynn Daniel has a warm voice and great song after great song with killer melodies... Brings to mind: Linda Ronstadt (ca. 1974) fronting The Wallflowers." - Weekly Planet
