"Judy Pancoast is an entertainer, an artist and a sheer delight. Critics put her somewhere between Jimmy Buffett and Karen Carpenter for the pre-teen set. I'd add a dash of the Beach Boys." Lisa Betty Cline, The Charlestown Bridge 14 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, POP: Bubblegum Pop Details: The Bar Harbor News writes about Judy, "Her award-winning music and high-energy performance will delight audiences young and old. Be warned: You might find yourself doing "The Potty Dance" along with your children." Featuring 14 family friendly songs, "This recording bursts with sophisticated pop beats and arrangements akin to anything one would hear on Top 40 radio today," proclaims Editorial Review, Amazon.com. "The key to her success: children identify with her as she identifies with them, and their common experiences are set to music that's fun and "cool." The Children's Music Web found Judy's song, "The Potty Dance" so much fun that it was awarded Best Song for Young Children. "Are We There Yet?" is one of three award winning CDs comprising a special Collector's Edition of Judy's music. The other two titles are "Swimming In Jello" and "The Tune Room."
