Indie folk pop, highly influenced by The Beatles. 7 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Show all album songs: Bury Your Love Songs Details: Justin Levinson's music is influenced by many great artists-The Beatles, Bob Dylan, Elton John, and Elliott Smith, to name a few-but with its pounding piano lines and clever lyrics, the music is most often compared to that of Ben Folds. Juxtaposing upbeat melodies with often serious subject matter, Justin creates perfectly catchy tunes that nobody can resist singing along to. His current style was many years in the making, but Justin's music now reflects the pop/folk and indie music he has always loved. Justin has collected many loyal fans over the years, but they aren't the only ones who respect his talents. His ability to create authentic pop music earned Justin several songwriting awards from Berklee College Of Music in Boston, as well as a slot in the 2006 International Pop Overthrow Tour. Justin's commitment to music is further demonstrated by his busy schedule of gigs at some of the best venues in the northeast. With the release of 1175 Boylston, his first full-length album, Justin has already made a name for himself in college radio market. The two singles from the record "Sunny Day" and "City With 2 Streetlights" spent 8 weeks on the top 25 CMJ Charts, being played in over 350 stations across the country and sparking some major label interest. Justin has also recently won the ASCAPPLUS award from ASCAP for his outstanding achievement and hard work. He has also recently signed a licensing contract to have his music placed in movies and television with wacbiz.com. This year Justin was also a finalist in the 2007 USA Songwriting Competition
