Marty Beech lives on the pristine island of St. John in the U.S. Virgin Islands. His debut CD does ol blue eyes proud. Recorded in Atlanta, Georgia with some of Hotlantas finest jazz players, Beech croons with a refreshing, captivating smoothness. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: I wanted this CD to have a live feel like at a cozy little jazz club from the old days. The traditional trio piano, bass drums is the core of the sound which is enhanced by the fine solo work of the horn players. I hope that the mood takes you to a place where your worries melt away and the music is all that mattersoh, and dont forget the martinis! Marty Beech Marty began playing keyboards and singing in various bands as a teenager. He graduated from school dances to the booze hall/beer joint circuit before settling down to raise a family. His musical tastes mellowed in time and he developed a love for jazz and swing. He credits his mother and her extensive collection of crooners her favorite, Ol Blue Eyes, of course for the evolution of his vocal style. Ten years ago Beech, his wife and two children, decided to move onto their sailboat and start a new life in the U.S. Virgin Islands. Beech landed a gig in St. Thomas at a benefit concert which, surprisingly enough, featured the music of Frank Sinatra. This opportunity opened many doors for Beech and introduced him to the local music scene. Marty Beech currently performs regularly at a variety of venues on St. Thomas and St. John.
