Details: Rajko is London-based singer/songwriter whose music captivates with it's gentle power and honesty. Poor as a Church Mouse is Rajko's first album, recorded and produced under his own label RajkoMusic and officially released December 2008. Reviews: "This album soothed my soul...REAL music to breathe new life into days that seem to have none." KT, USA "A truly talented and spontaneous performer... who not only captivates with his music but with a genuine ability to connect" -L Obradovic, Belgrade Fortress This guy writes and performs beautiful songs that are so accessible that, given the exposure that he has already had, must bring him the success he deserves. Mark my words, he will be big. -Peter Coulston, Backstage Pass A word from the artist: "This album was recorded just the way I wanted it to be done...with lots of limitations but with every ounce of sincerity and feeling and weakness and emotion and determination and hope that I have. Every word and every note has a story behind it for me...and so I hope it might stir something real for other people when they listen. I've written a lot of songs over the last ten years, but these are the 14 that I wanted to put on my first album. I wanted this to be where I start...Poor as a Church Mouse. Just Me (voice and guitar), Nik (2nd guitar and piano) and Adrianne (cello) - that's the sound of this album." Rajko Rajko is currently touring and independently promoting his album in the UK, USA and Europe.
