Sunshine pop, Acoustic Rock, Quirky, Power Pop, British pop, 13 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, POP: Quirky Details: Influenced by the cream of Pop and Rock music from the Rock and roll era through to the present day, The Brigadier (Matt Williams) writes melodic pop songs with heart melting chord changes and catchy choruses. Having established a strong following in the myspace music community, Creation/Poptones boss Alan McGee was suitably impressed enough to offer The Brigadier a gig at his Death Disco night in Notting Hill, London. Armed with a packed arsenal of timeless pop songs, The Brigadier has had radio coverage in the UK, USA and Europe, as well as magazine coverage locally. The Brigadiers influences include The Beach Boys, The Beatles, Queen, The Divine Comedy, The Byrds, Nick Lowe, Led Zeppelin and The Rolling Stones. Debut album 'View from the bath' has had great acclaim from fans and peers alike!
