The GIPSY KINGS love and endorse the TIERRA NEGRA flamenco guitar Tierra Negra has designed their own signature guitar model. It is a totally handcrafted, high quality flamenco guitar build by a spanish luthier. For more details about the guitar please do also visit the TIERRA NEGRA webshop or send an email to info@tierranegra.de Last summer, in July 2004, the GIPSY KINGS flew to Germany to play live at big a German TV show. Because their own instruments were stuck at the German customs, their manager called TIERRA NEGRA to borrow 8 guitars for this tv programm on the same day. When the guitars arrived at the venue the GIPSY KINGS immediatly started to make session with our instruments and didnt stop until the beginning of their tv broadcasting. During the show the GIPSY KINGS manager called us and told us that the band loves the sound and the quality of the TIERRA NEGRA guitars. He asked for a meeting with us and the band. It was great fun for us to meet the guys, to have dinner with them, to talk and to play with them. After our meeting the GIPSY KINGS offered TIERRA NEGRA to endorse the TIERRA NEGRA guitar world wide!!! ALBUM "Clouds in the sky" the third cd from Germanies most succesful guitar duo! The songs for this album where composed in different places and countries. The song "Port Lligat" was composed after a visit in the incredible house of the great genius Salvador Dal. This house is an artwork for its own and was very inspiring for the two composers Leo and Raughi. "On the market place" discribes the unique atmosphere on the weekly market in Arles/Provence, "Noche en Valencia" is about a night in Valencia around christmas, where Raughi and Leo visited Spain. It was a warm night and all the trees and buildings where already decorated for christmas...
