Acoustic Folk-Pop; Philosophical, Introspective lyrics; Ambient, Coffeehouse, Mellow, Sunday Morning, Late Night, Soaring, Minimal 10 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, FOLK: Gentle Details: CAUFIELD is an acoustic harmony duo. The duo is based in Los Angeles, and is built on male-female harmonies performing the songs of singer-songwriter Tom Caufield. "Falling Short Of Utopia" is CAUFIELD's debut CD; released in 2005, the album was a favorite on radioioacoustic and coolstreams internet radio. Tom's partner on this set is a Los Angeles based singer named Maureen Doherty. Accompanied by solo acoustic guitar and piano, the duo add subtle flavors of bass, strings, tambourine, and tremelo guitars to create a relaxed, captivating, ambient, philosphical (yet catchy) coffeehouse sound. The result is a moody, warm and a bit mysterious - a mix of Cowboy Junkies-esque vibe and the sincere, hopeful acoustic pop of James Taylor.
