At last a brand new style of music, powerful timeless songs peppered with bluesy jazzy flavours here and there and a voice that knows no limit. myspace.com/corkyscats 5 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: Corkys Cats Are; Betsan Lloyd - Songwriter, vocalist and keyboards. Betsan has been composing and writing songs since she was eight years of age, composing for many theatre productions as well as for her own projects. With a strong musical background and many instruments at hand, Betsan and her family played many concerts as countless different multi instrumental ensembles. Betsans enthusiasm and drive for music led her to master the piano, harp, flute and guitar and to become a competent singer and performer. Betsans first pop group which was established in junior school was her first journey out of classical realms - a journey she is still exploring to this day. Betsan graduated in a Music and Drama and went on to work in the music industry, playing and touring with some big names including the Sugarcubes with Bjork. She also qualified as a teacher in her subjects and has given a great deal back teaching in schools and privately, many of her pupils have gone on to achieve in their own right. Betsan now spends her time playing live with Corkys Cats, composing and recording. Phil Powell - Bass. Initially a guitarist AKA Sessionguitarman, Phil has played across the UK with many bands and is highly respected for his pioneering work as one of the, if not the worlds first on-line session guitarist (sessionguitarman). In 2002 when Betsan decided it was time to get her songs out to the world Phil ground the frets of his old Fender bass and got cracking on the unique playing style you hear in Corkys Cats. Phil spends his time playing live with Corkys Cats, writing and recording. Phil is also the recording engineer and producer at MusicalTools studios, the home of Lloyd-Powell Productions. Colin Owen - Drums. Colin is a highly respected UK drummer who has been in such great demand that he often had as many as 4 different bands on the go. He has embraced the world of Corkys Cats and played hi first gig as a Cat in November 2005. Colin now spends his time playing live with Corkys Cats, recording with Corkys Cats and teaching drums in his studio in Northop. myspace.com/corkyscats
