An bold blend of blue grass/country, pop and rock, the album has clever lyrics, and fresh, reassuring melodies. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: A Molotov cocktail wrapped in a filo pastry. Says Jonathon Torrens of the Trailer Park Boys about what he has heard of Cynthia Russells live performance, but this is merely a stab at summarizing what is one dimension of her gripping words, melodies and themes. For her debut CD To a Song, Cynthia has created an album of varying genres, approaches and themes that reflect her countless musical travels and influences - from Joni Mitchell to Tom Waits, from Kelly Clarkson to The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. - A little bit of the spirit of Sunday morning and Friday night all mixed into one; after listening you dont know if you feel like hauling back deep on cigarette or trying to quit all your dirty habits and begin soaring with the ravens. Thematic lyrics, fresh, and reassuring melodies are what sets Cynthias music apart and ahead. She has a comprehensive soul and To a Song is addictive not only in pieces but in its entirety. This songstress is a perpetual world traveler by whatever means is available. She has been broadcast internationally, she has climbed some of the highest peaks on the planet and is a pioneer in her approach to life, arts and music. Leaving home at sixteen, gave her a head start on her studies of theater, languages and music to which she has always been drawn. Born sixth in a family of ten I have always been a sentinel for myself- busy watching and imagining and writing. From living on a 12 by 12 house boat on the Great Slave Lake of the North West Territories, to jumping off that bridge in the no mans land between Zambia and Zimbabwe over the Zambezi, she has gathered insights and savored sights that she has pocketed and used to embellish her subconscious scrap book. The real ones are too much work and anyway they fade. She has performed in places like the historic Wild Cat Caf in Yellowknife, recently at the Northern Arts and Culture Center in YK where she released her CD To a Song and she has performed to an international audience on Sounds

Like Canada with host Shelagh Rogers. Along with the perilous task of teaching Language Arts to High School students (to which she attributes her knowledge of the language), song writing, singing, playing guitar and a little percussion she has recently been dabbling in production. She co-produced her debut CD with Steve McGonigle from Black Box Studios in Edmonton to which the legendary Gateway Mastering Studios gave a phenomenal finished sound. Her CD features some of Canadas best - including Juno Award winning Jeremiah McDade who plays soprano Saxophone, flutes and does inspiring harmonies, and several stars from the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. Familiar with the heart break of the euphemism of co-parenting, she writes of a childs longing for both mother and father. She writes of break ups. She personifies melody and poetry. She pleads with drug addicts, and laments futility. Nothing and no one is left untouched.
