Acoustic-folk-pop-singer/songwriter using many musical genres and a bewildered sense of humor, in an attempt to document her never-ending struggle to understand life, love and the pursuit of just about every little ol' thing she's ever desired. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, POP: Folky Pop Show all album songs: Neuropeptide Blues Songs Details: Urgent! I am begging you, all of you, please buy this CD and urge your friends to do the same! I really don't want to go back to teaching high school French. I am desperate! I figured out that if I could sell about 200 CDs a month I could quit my day job! (Yeah, teachers dont make that much money . . . pitiful isnt it?) And this would not only be good for me, it would be good for the whole of humanity. Just think . . . all you have to do is order this REALLY GOOD CD and youd be doing your part to make the world a better place AND, as if that werent motivation enough, youd be highly entertained. And by recommending my CD to your friends and acquaintances, you could improve your image as a connoisseur of great songwriting. Youll be highly respected and admired for your excellent taste in music and your ability to ferret out new and innovative artists. Im not afraid to grovel folks! Ill do whatever it takes. Just please, for pity sake, dont make me go back to teaching! Ive been serving public education for years and Ive done a really pretty okay job of it . . . sometimes I even bordered on brilliant. But Im fried to a cracklin crisp and I really need a career change. I love songwriting so much and Id be so thrilled to be able to earn my living this way. So please, please, pretty please! Order your very own copy of Neuropeptide Blues today. You wont regret it! I promise! My friends and I worked really hard on this project and it turned out super great. Bruce Bouck, Rich Moore, Tom Ross, Celeste Krenz, Clay Kirkland, Jim Remington, Mick Conley, and Dan Spomer all played and sang their little hearts out on these songs. They took my budding little tunes and added all sorts of bells and whistles and pumped them up into fantastic works of art. Really, I wouldnt lie about something this important! They are really stupendous!

So, enough already, right? Buy it direct! Buy it collect . . . but buy it TODAY! And thanks so much for your help and assistance in making this planet a happier place, one desperate songwriter at a time. I am truly grateful! Hugs, Deedee
