freshdeal@buckpcreacy buckpcreacy Buck P. Creacy is a humorist and a storyteller. However, that description is hardly adequate for this very funny man. Buck P. uses humor to make life better for his audience. At 14 while shining shoes at the barbershop, he realized he could shine more shoes if his customers were laughing. An honest to God humorist, Buck P. shares wit and wisdom with all ages, entertaining children and the international corporate world alike. He is never malicious in his humor though sharper than ever. Choosing to make his humor safe for any audience, Buck P. sees the world just differently enough to make you laugh out-loud.
