Details: And I wont stoptil the day that I know I can celebrate. -Fionna Faulk, Belated My songs are everything to me. Theyre there when I dont have anyone else to talk toand pick me up when I feel like Im in the worst place in the world. They always know how I feel without ever having to say a single word. Hello my name is Fionna Faulk, and Im addicted to being a singer/songwriter. Since 2002, Ive had the gnawing addiction to play guitar and write songs, though Ive been writing songs since I was eight. And since 2003, Ive been able to play and sing those songs around northeast Ohio, my home! But, alas, my addiction only continues to grow stronger. With a sound something like Norah Jones meets Alanis Morissette meets Jewel, Ive recently finished my EP The Stadium of Saints Project (2006), and am ready to serve it up to you on a silver platter. So, thank you for stopping by. Your presence is more than appreciated and I hope you enjoy the music. If you havent already, take a second to stop by my myspace page or send me a quick email at fionna@fionnafaulk.com Peace, yo. -Fionna Faulk
