Details: Jerem Egan has been writing and performing music for over thirty years. He has produced two collection albums with music from several songwriters previous to The Grey Wolf "First Tracks" CD (the first collection of his original music). The Grey Wolf CD attempts to convey the possibility of living life with great compassion and gusto. The subject matter ranges from: merging heart and sexuality in love relationships, to questioning the justification for war as a necessary action, to healing father/daughter wounds, to confronting one's own narcissism. "First Tracks" uses a variety of styles: folk, slinky/jazzy, Island,Celtic, spoken word, R&B and chant.
