Fun, Upbeat Bible-based music geared for kids, but loved by parents too. 13 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, ROCK: Ska Details: Get ready to sing and shout and leap for joy! Shout for Joy will be a CD you'll love to listen to again and again. Jeff Roady Grable's debut album is a collection of songs that have passed the test of the most difficult family audience, with kids and adults humming melodies for days after the show. Ministries Director at Forest Home Camps says, Finding truly good musicianship united with a genuine heart for God's Kingdom can be really difficult. This combination can be experienced in Jeff Grable's project, Shout for Joy, as the life-giving message of God's Word and high quality production collide. Youth and adults alike will find the words of Christ richly dwelling among them upon each listen to this collection of powerful Scripture verses combined with memorable melodies. I highly recommend it. Bring this music into your life and look out for an exciting change in you and your music! Jeff Roady Grable began impacting children for Christ in 1993, when he began working at Forest Home Camps. Jeff's desire is for people to experience the Word of God in fun, creative ways. He has been a worship leader and guest speaker at a variety of churches and camps throughout California. Pam Farrel, author, speaker, and founder of Masterful Living, says, Jeff has an amazing ability to span the ages with his music. Everyone in the audience from the smallest child to the sweetest grandmother is blessed and encouraged. Jeff is polished, professional, and perfect for the family-oriented audience. Jeff, his wife, and two sons live in Southern California where he teaches music, does camp ministry, and continues to write and record music, in hopes of bringing people closer to God.
