Details: Living in Oklahoma in 1999 Darren a successful Hair Designer and Candice a successful Foot Model for JG Pennies decided that it was time for a change. If they were ever going to be what they were put on this earth for-MUSIC. They quit there day jobs, quickly becoming homeless hence the term "Don't Quit Your Day Job". Through trial and error, audition after audition formed a band called "JEL", which means to mesh, jive in other words to "JEL". They played in a number of clubs, coffeehouses, and charity events around Oklahoma generating quite a large following. They decided to press there first demo called "JEL" 7. They pressed 10 copies that had seven of the rawest cuts made by this dynamic husband and wife duo hence the name "7". The ten discs went so fast they decided to shop around for the "Great Record Deal". As naive as they were, they decided the place to go was the great "Purple One's House". So they hopped on a Greyhound bus and headed to the Twin Cities and knocked on Prince's door. With a little blessing received a call back from Paisley Park but they never had a chance to respond because when they received a call they were waiting like Vultures outside of a Macy Gray concert at the Orpheum Theater. As the Macy Gray crew arrived they begged each band member, backup singer, tour bus driver, and lighting engineer to listen to thier music. As night fell, Macy Gray's road manager came out to the curb where Darren and Candice were sitting and gave them free tickets and back stage passes to the concert. Darren and Candice would like to think that it was because there music sounded so good but it was probably because they felt sorry for them sitting out in the hot sun all day begging people to listen to there CD. So they took pity and offered them tickets to come inside. Anyway, after the show they were hanging out back stage and some people began asking who the two eclectic looking musicians were and the Macy Gray Band responded with "This is JEL and if you haven't heard of them you are missing out! With that said they began selling the 15 CD's that they brought to Minnesota, and thought "Hey, people might actually like this "JEL" music. So they sent home to Oklahoma for the master copy and went to a factory in Minneapolis and had 200 CD's pressed, and then went out on the streets of the Twin Cities with a boom box and a pounding Car Stereo and sold 77 CD's in one night. With that, Candice and Darren (JEL) decided that they did not want to search for a Record Deal anymore and moved the whole operation and their Children to Minnesota. Selling enough CD's and hard work to open up JELhousestudios equipped with its state of the art all digital Roland VS2480 and singelplex facility, also forming the Record Label JELhouserecords pressing it's first CD release in their sophomore campaign "HAZES" on the JELhouse label. In conclusion it would be who of you to check out "HAZES" the brand new CD from the band "JEL"!
