An Adult Alternative Rock Album You Won't Be Able To Stop Playing. 15 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Joe Campbell, singer/songwriter from Newark, Delaware has finally released his highly awaited adult alternative light rock debut album. After more than two years in production, Joe's self-titled CD is now available through his own label, Sujo Record. Imagine the vocals of Tom Petty, Bruce Springsteen and David Bowie all rolled up into one dynamic vocalist and you've got....Joe Campbell. JOE CAMPBELL, the album, contains fifteen songs about Sex, Love and the Human Condition and is getting airplay on internet radio around the world. College radio and commercial radio will soon follow. Joe is concentrating on self promotion at the moment after spending so much time on the making of his album. Though, he is considering hiring a top radio promoter to push his new CD regionally and then nationally. Putting his live act together is also high on his agenda along with putting together the right folks to help him properly handle the business side of his music career. Warning: Don't listen to JOE CAMPBELL on your way to work, whatever you do. Chances are you'll get in trouble with your boss for being late. Your only excuse will be that you had to listen to another song by Joe Campbell. Please, be CAREFULL!!!
