Lean into the Night - it feels good. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folky Pop Details: Born in the heart of the windy city, home and soul of the blues, Keith Serpa has rhythm pulsing through his veins. Raised on the rich-smoky notes of Chicago's diverse and soulful music scene, Serpa's never too far from the sounds of the street. Having found an extraordinary musical mentor in his uncle, the late, great Jim McPherson, who played with such legendary acts as Copperhead, Mickey Hart's High Noon, Jefferson Starship, Joan Baez, and Merl Saunders to name a few, Serpa forged his own fascinating and transfixing sound. For years, audiences have basked in the unique glow of Serpa's simmering club and coffee house jams. The raw passion in his lyrics, his infectious riffs, his scatting vocals all continue to dance through your soul long after a performance. Don't miss a chance to hear this stirring artist.
