Electronica, ambient, tribal- lush textures and complex beats make this a must have for electronic music lovers. 8 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ELECTRONIC: Soundscapes Details: Dear Listener: I have been producing electronic music for about 8 years now. It all started when I was a high-school student listening to German house music. I layed on my couch for hours analyzing the beautiful, other-worldly sounds coming out of my speakers. How did they do it? I had to know, so I started buying pieces of gear to experiment with. It was not enough to quench my thirst, so I attended composition classes and recording school from which I graduated top of my class. Now I a own a complete studio worth many thousands of dollars. An expensive hobby, to say the least. I continually try new things and integrate classical techniques used by composers throughout the years. Combined with cutting-edge technology, it makes for a potent mix. I am not always about fitting into a mold, it defies my personality. Sometimes I will write a straight-forward piece and sometime I will write a total abstraction. I hope you enjoy this music. I worked hard to make it, and I will continue to create it, but I need help. Thank you for your purchase today. Sincerely, Paul M. Dziejman Praline Music
