A sonic combination of indie rock, funk, pop and old-school punk that has garnered this 3-piece an eclectic mix of comparisons including The Rapture, Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, The Pixies, U2 and The Police. 5 MP3 Songs POP: Pop/Rock, ROCK: American Underground Details: Secret Broadcast is a 3-piece indie-rock outfit which formed in early 2006 after Matt Lightstone moved from Toronto to Calgary, Canada and met Bryan Craig and John De Jesus. Together they started writing songs that combined elements of rock, funk, pop and old-school punk which garnered them an eclectic mix of comparisons including The Rapture, Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, The Pixies, U2 and The Police. In early 2007, with only a rough basement recording under their belt, Secret Broadcast was accepted to perform a showcase at the North by Northeast (NXNE) music festival in Toronto which has since precipitated discussions with record labels in Canada, the United States, and the United Kingdom. Their reputation for energetic and memorable live shows also helped solidify an invitation to the 2007 Vans Warped Tour. Secret Broadcasts debut EP Plastic Fantastic, produced by Zuckerbabys Reed Shimozawa, was released independently on August 25th. "With a daunting pedal board and an all around penchant for full-bodied, atmospheric sound, the trio eat up the stage and dont leave the listener feeling as though anything is missing. Combining elements of classic and indie rock, danceable beats and even taking cues from ambient acts, the band brings something new to the table. Theyre often compared to U2, while at the same time Id also draw parallels to Calgarys own The Dudes. Joel Klettke (BeatRoute Magazine) -"Warm and free-flowing vocal stylings float over Strokes-inspired guitar melodies and frenetic hi-hat-heavy dance beats, all adding up to some easy-on-the-ears rock 'n' roll!Not a secret for long!" Alvy Singer (FFWD Weekly)
