Triple Gold Records is carrying on its mission to restore the essence of music. With an aim at redefining the level of recognition to the independent Artist and entrepreneur, TGR remains true to their motto, "Either you roll with us or get rolled the F**K over." With a diverse music output, TGR's expanding catalog stems over many musical genres. The gold n' black attacks with a driving force to reclaim the integrity back to the art and culture of Hip-Hop. Triple Gold Records, enjoying the notoriety from their head bobbin' debut "Unleashing..." is back with the continuing chapter to their musical saga. "Unleashed" The Compilation Vol. 2, the second installment to this trilogy, cumulates the assimilation of Triple Gold's House of Representatives teamed with other Bay Area musical soldiers. Heading the Calvary, Sco-D; Filossofee and Sifu Sucka Free engulf you in a nonstop arsenal of musical combaticks. With the musical stylings of Tre Jones and Mz. Leading, "Unleashed" The Compilation Vol. 2 will have you comin' back for more and poppin' your collar to the diversity of this musical masterpiece. With the collaborating production geniuses at Triple Gold Records, there's a song for everyone here, from the verbal assaults of "Spit Fiya" and "Redemption," to the acoustically euphoric "I Miss You" and "As Long"

to name a few. The party starting joints "Running the Game" and "Tha Comeback" will have folks screaming for more while leaning back and bobbing to "Truth is Truth" and "Fundamental". Reclaiming the prestigiousness of the independent artist thought long gone in the commercially dominant music industry, "Unleashed" The Compilation Vol.2 rekindles the hope that the true essence of music still exists. Dedicated and determined, Triple Gold Records exemplifies the insatiable desire of the independent artists' up-hill battle striving to be recognized for their music and not their statue. In a musically perfect world, CD's will not be played because of what label it's on, or what artist name appears on the CD, rather by the quality and integrity of the music. "Unleashed" The Compilation Vol.2 is taking another step towards that. Stay tuned.
