Related styles: KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Educational People who are interested in Peter Gabriel Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Bobby McFerrin should consider this download. Details: This CD is part of a collection of educational books, audio-books and CDs that kids can take with them to bed. It uses an amusing approach to everyday life routines like waking up, a baby brother, eating, watching TV, being lost, frustration, anger, etc. Jazz through "Wake Up Sleepy Head." Stomp your feet with the blues in "I Love My Sloppy Mess." Tango with "Boris The Bat" while he tells you about the perils of broad daylight and the relaxing beauty of the night. Listen to "The Kite's" baroque musical approach to imagination. Dance to the Caribbean rhythm of "Jimmy The Sea Horse's" tantrum when he loses at games. Smooth into "Natalie the Bee's" beat while she learns patience trying to fly. As a TV writer and program host the author spent many years entertaining large audiences with stories, songs and educational activities. A fun and refreshing experience soon to become a children's classic. Catchy tunes that kids can sing and where they can listen to the sounds of their own world. Author and composer: Ximena Fajardo-Krauze Ximena started her academic life with a Major in Music and Minors in Philosophy and Literature. She is a specialist in Early Music and has a BA in Journalism and Media. Her research interests cover a range of topics in Media Literacy, Psychology and Education focusing on new and unorthodox teaching strategies. Seminars and Workshops with Heinz Von Foerster (cybernetics) and Karl Thom (systemic thinking) among others, have been very important for her work with children and particularly her experience with the Orff method of teaching music. She won a scholarship in social communication from Radio Netherlands and CIESPAL. She has performed Medieval and Renaissance music with Early Music consorts. This CD was first arranged with the help of flutist and ethnomusician Hernando Jos Cobo member of the Dolmetsch Ensemble of Early Music. Ximena lives in Florida.
