Squeeze Page Profits Marketing online can be a very tricky business. With so many different types of advertisements, schemes, and mailing lists out there, the savvy consumer is getting much more keen to how companies collect their information or attempt to make a sale. Electronic commerce has really become the heart and soul of small businesses, venture capitalists and anyone who wants to pursue the dream of making their own money. With this new age of Internet sales and marketing comes a lot of new possibilities. One of these possibilities includes a technique many online marketers use known as a squeeze page. Another term for a squeeze page is a "lead capture page", since the purpose of the page is to capture and collect leads in order to generate sales.
