A homemade recording by a one man band that reminds some listeners of the Kinks, the Eels. Tom Tom Club, Devo, They Might Be Giants, David Bowie, Tom Petty and the Clash. 18 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: This is Bernie Bernie Headflap's fifth cd, the third as a one man home recording project. The sound is lofi with drum samples, like a cross between Guided By Voices and They Might Be Giants. The songs are quite varied in mood and style with shades of hip-hop, reggae and industrial, but mostly pop/rock. Garageband listeners reacted especially favorably to "Jealousy," "Trial and Error," and "The Day Some Disappointed People Disappeared." Some people find this cd extremely addictive. It is especially recommended for those who are bored by ultra slick music industry product.
