Mississippi done had they time, Atlanta done had they time, now it's Alabama time, we don't follow the rules of the industry. 13 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: The group which consists of three guys in their late 20's, originated in Anniston, Alabama. We have been touring Alabama for the last 8 years performing mostly at major music festivals and clubs. DSB has opened up for a number of major Hip Hop and Rap artist, as well as R&B artists. We have shared the stage with the Ying Yang Twins and DJ Smurf with their latest album. We have also opened up for Ray J performing his hit "Wait A Minute", performed on shows featuring the last Mr Biggs and have gotten shows crunk with Dirty. DSB featured in the Players Picnic in Tuskegee Alabama with T.I. from Atlanta as headliner, blew the WEUP Black Arts Festival up in Huntsville Alabama which included, Tank, J.T. Money, Mr. Blu, held the crowd down at the Montgomery Jubilee City Fest while they waited for Jaheim, performed several years at the Juneteenth Heritage Festival and the Birmingham Heritage Festival. DSB has performed in the Atlanta Soul Food and Music Festival. DSB was in the Mobile Bay Fest last year (2002) on a Rock radio stage and turned the crowd upside down. Check out our photo album on the Bama Hip Hop website and our video on the Double A Recordz site to see what a DSB party is all about. Our label, Double A Recordz also provides the following services: which includes studio time, instrumental tracks, and custom graphics. If you are interested in any of these services you may contact Kane Barclay at 256-330-4315. I could go on forever but instead if you want to know more about DSB check us out at bamahiphop.homestead.com/DSB.html or doublearecordz.com
